

Income

- Income Statement – we can generally access these details
- Government Pensions, Payments & Allowances – we can generally access these details
- Eligible Termination Payment Statements - usually received on retirement or redundancy
- Interest Received on Bank Accounts
- Dividends Received - including dividends reinvested (usually 2 per year)
- Any claims made on an Income Protection or Sickness & Accident Insurance
- Documentation relating to any assets purchased or sold, for example
 - shares, including any correspondence regarding any share transactions including sale, takeover, merger, demerger, etc
 - vacant land
 - house or other assets received from an estate
 - house (including own residence)
 - works of art, collections
 - assets received through a divorce settlement

Deductions

- Work Expense receipts or other evidence for expenses including:
 - Car Expenses (logbook required or diary entries showing no. kms travelled)
 - Union Fees
 - Registration & Subscription Fees
 - Uniforms, Protective Clothing & Laundry
 - Tools of Trade, etc
 - Sunscreen, Sunglasses & Hats
 - Home Computer / Internet / Phone (should have a log showing use)
 - Home Office (should have diary entries recording hours worked at home)
- Donations - including school building fund & payments included on electricity bill
- Accountants Fees paid last year
- Any Income Protection Insurance or Sickness & Accident Insurance paid
- Letter from superannuation fund confirming you are claiming a deduction for contributions

2019/20 Year only

 These claims should be reduced if you were required to work from home due to Coronavirus lockdown

 Special rate of 80 cents per hour for each hour you work at home for the period from 1st March 2020 to 30 June 2020 only

Other

- Seniors & Pensioners Tax Offset (SAPTO) - if your spouse/partner is 60 years or older, require their taxable income
- Health Insurance - letter from insurer (eg: BUPA) about contributions made -- we can generally access these details
- Spouse Superannuation Contributions - amount of superannuation paid, name of superannuation fund & member number
- Zone Offset - children's full names, dates of birth & any income they may have earned
- Amount of Child Support paid
- Bank Account details for possible refund including BSB, Account Number & Account Name